

Kapil Sibal IN

PRESS RELEASE

Kapil Sibal is launching his website : www.kapilsibal.in. Here, you will find his views on various contemporary issues including his vision of India. The site will also contain material, both in print and electronic form, to give you further information about him and the issues he stands for.

Kapil Sibal hopes for an enthusiastic interaction so that views can be exchanged for a healthy dialogue. Every week, he will publish his views on contemporary issues confronting us.

This launch is the beginning of his increasing presence online. He intends to be on other relevant online platforms as well.

This website is his private initiative. He has hired Digital5 Strategic Communications, to create, host and maintain the website as well as his other online platforms.